Weddings at Caistor Hall

*D*esigned for the illustrious Dashwood family in the time of King George III, Caistor Hall is a superb venue for special occasions.

Located in the ancient rural village of Caistor St Edmund, the estate boasts a rich history dating as far back as the Norman Conquest, whilst the magnificent Georgian hall was built between 1795 and 1797 and has benefited from significant developments over the years.

*J*ust a short drive from the A47 and the heart of Norwich city centre, the site consists of 32 acres of established woodland, landscaped grounds and lawns, with ample parking.

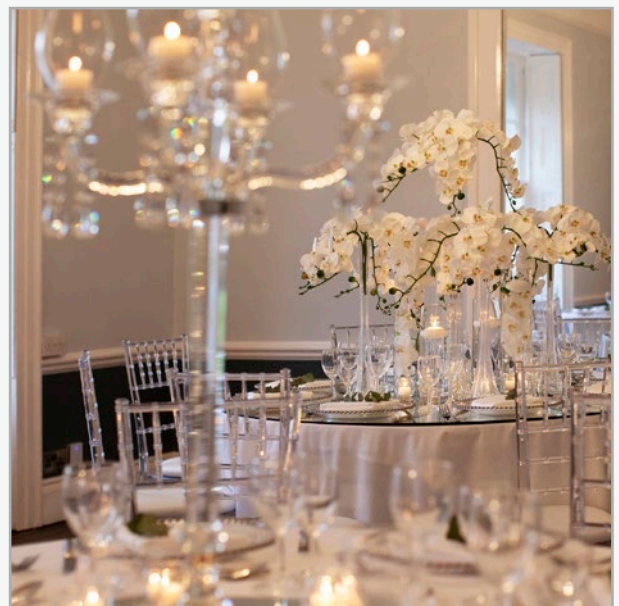

The hall itself features 20 individually designed, luxury en-suite bedrooms and suites for overnight guests. In addition, the hotel is home to Caistor's Bistro for daytime and evening dining, and an extensive bar and whiskey lounge. For private events, a number of elegant and beautifully appointed traditional reception rooms offer an ideal option for smaller occasions and intimate gatherings. And for larger events and weddings the stunning Pavilion marquee, with its own large terrace & lawns, bar and facilities, can host up to 400 guests.

The Wedding Breakfast

*R*ecently acquired by Brasted's, Caistor Hall is the latest addition to the Brasted's Collection, meaning events are delivered by the highly experienced and multi-award-winning events and hospitality team.

With over 35 years in catering and hospitality they are brimming with ideas and expertise to guide you through every step of your event. Their wide selection of seasonally inspired and locally sourced dishes can all be adapted to create your own bespoke menu and with a wealth of experience in fine dining, you know your event is in the right hands.
